August 23rd Security Talk for K-12 teachers

The Cybersecurity Division (CSD) at the National Center for Supercomputing Applications (NCSA), a department of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, is hosting a webinar for Illinois K-12 teachers on Tuesday, August 23rd from 4pm - 5pm Central time.

The session will cover various cybersecurity topics, from securing accounts & passwords, multifactor authentication, wifi best practices, data privacy, and email & phishing scams.

Click here to view the video on YouTube

Click here to download a PDF of the slides

For questions about the presentation, or security in general, contact help+security@ncsa.illinois.edu.

To learn more about security at NCSA, see our website, our Github, and follow us on Twitter at @NCSASecurity.